MONTHLY READ

The UU Women's Social Justice Monthly Reads Club allows entry into our priority issues and supports individuals looking to build on being better allies and co-conspirators. We're reading some of the latest award-winning books and newsworthy articles as we interpret how they can be tools for social justice.

In October we will be reading:

THE SUM OF US
by Heather McGhee

Join this discussion on October 1st, 4pm-5pm PST
via Zoom

The UU Women's Federation Social Justice Book Club is now including articles as a part of our monthly reads discussion! We will be exploring 2-3 short, engaging articles per topic, all available to you without a paywall. This change aims to provide more diverse and accessible content, allowing for a broader range in topics and quicker reads. We believe this will enhance our members' online community experience and encourage exploration of various subjects.
We hope you'll read along with us!

Finding Freedom: White Women Taking on Our Own White Supremacy

REGISTER A TEAM! REGISTER WITH A FRIEND! This online workshop series aims to deepen our individual and collective understanding of how we can make changes as we strive to live more consistently within our racial justice commitments.

This workshop may still be useful to you if you are of mixed race and were socialized as a white female and/or you are perceived as one today.

Who Is This For?

We are offering this series to UU community members who identify as white and female/nonbinary/genderqueer. Space is limited to 40 participants.

Who Will Lead the Program?

Evangeline Weiss and Kari Points developed and will be delivering the series. You can learn more about them here.

When Is It?

Wednesdays, September 6 through October 4
(September 6, 13, 20, 27, and October 4, 2023)

3:30-6:00 pm Pacific

4:30-7:00 pm Mountain

5:30-8:00 pm Central

6:30-9:00 pm Eastern

Please note: Attendance at the first session is required. If you are unable to attend that one, we ask that you do not register. After that, participants are strongly encouraged to attend all five sessions to get the most out of the program. None of the sessions will be recorded.

What Is the Cost?

NOTAFLOF (No One Turned Away for Lack of Funds)

JOIN US AT OUR NEXT COMMUNITY GATHERING

Join us August 17th for a dynamic conversation with Katia Hansen, as we discuss ways to embrace faithful justice at every level.

Katia Hansen is the President & CEO of UURISE, Unitarian Universalist Refugee and Immigrant Services and Education, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) with a mission of advancing justice and human rights for immigrants and refugees. She has been with UURISE since its formation in 2007, and is thrilled to have a place where she can blend her education and experience in social work and law for a career that makes her heart sing.

Our Community Gatherings are open to women, femmes, and gender expansive folks.

JOYS AND SORROWS

We strongly believe: when a sorrow is shared it is lessened and when a joy is shared it is multiplied!

Joys and Sorrows is a community space where we welcome anyone reading this to share their good news, big moments, outreach for support, or request for prayers. We invite you to be open in conversation with the UUWF as we are all in community together, building covenantal relationships on our journey to collective liberation.
