UU WOMEN'S FEDERATION SOCIAL JUSTICE
BOOK CLUB

The UU Women's Social Justice Book Club allows entry into our priority issues and supports individuals looking to build on being better allies and co-conspirators. We're reading some of the latest award-winning books as we interpret how they can be tools for social justice.

Next month we will be reading:

THE BODY IS NOT AN APOLOGY
by Sonya Renee Taylor

We're Taking a Radical Rest!

Hi Friends! The UU Women's Federation is taking a temporary hiatus for the month of July. We believe in radical rest as a means to ensure that we can best serve our community in the long run and continue making a meaningful impact. After careful consideration of our organization's needs, we have decided to take a brief break to focus on internal development, ongoing connections, and plans for our future. This hiatus period allows us to recharge, enhance our operations, and ensure that we continue delivering the best possible resources for our community.

We are excited to share with you the events we have planned following our brief break. We are committed to working diligently during the hiatus period to create engaging and meaning experiences for our community, and we can't wait to reconnect with you all!

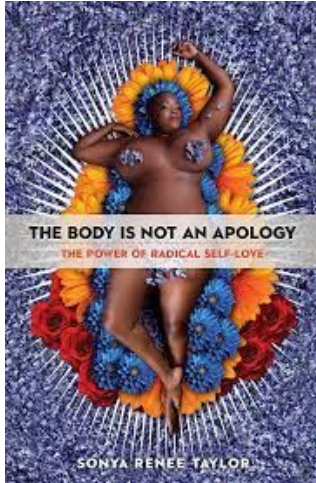

Next Events:
August Book Club 08/06
August Community Gathering 08/17

DID YOU CATCH US AT GENERAL ASSEMBLY?!

What a glorious time we had at General Assembly 2023! Thank you to everyone who came by the booth or attended our 60th Anniversary party. It was so good to see you all, and what a delight to meet many of our community members in person. We handed out so many stickers, buttons, post-it pads, and UUWF ribbons. And we were awed by how many people signed up to learn more about us. We even ran out of printed sign-up sheets!

We're so thankful for the number of you who see our work and are excited to become part of our community. Our booth time gave us the opportunity to connect directly with you to showcase our programming. Almost 100 people signed the covenant, our commitment to working for a better world together. We learned that more and more of you want a deeper commitment with us. We are working to bring a membership program that centers on our relationships with you (not with your money). We are excited in the new ways we can continue to do this work for women, femmes, and gender-expansive people.

And finally, a HUGE thank you to Emma's Revolution and their Bay Area Band! They rocked our 60th Anniversary and brought so much more to our GA experience. We even had to expand the room size to accommodate the over-300 guests we had! We have so much appreciation for Pat Humphries and Sandy O for this amazing collaboration. We hope to continue to work with you all again in the future.

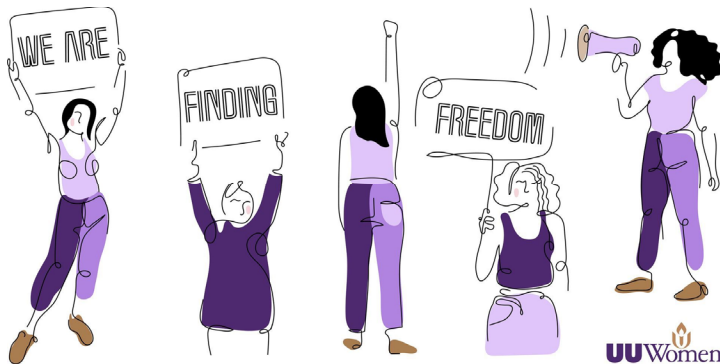

One of the wonderful things about being UU is that we see the beauty in collective rest. Like many other organizations, UUWF is taking a short break during the month of July. We will be back in full swing come August with our book discussion group, our community gathering, and more chances to plug into our work.

Finding Freedom: White Women Taking on Our Own White Supremacy

Join us for this five-part workshop series that aims to deepen our individual and collective understanding of how we, as white women and white gender-expansive people, are complicit with white supremacy, how we can make changes to live more deeply and consistently into our racial justice commitments, and how we can move ourselves and other people in our networks to join the fight for racial, economic, and gender justice right now. This workshop may also be useful to you if you are of mixed race and were socialized as a white female and/or you are perceived as one today.

Who Is This For?

We are offering this series to UU community members who identify as white and female/nonbinary/genderqueer. Space is limited to 40 participants.
