UU WOMEN'S FEDERATION SOCIAL JUSTICE MONTHLY READS

The UU Women's Social Justice Monthly Reads allows entry into our priority issues and supports individuals looking to build on being better allies and co-conspirators. We're reading some of the latest award winning books as we interpret how they can be tools for social justice.

October we will be reading:

BLACK WOMEN AND THE CHALICE

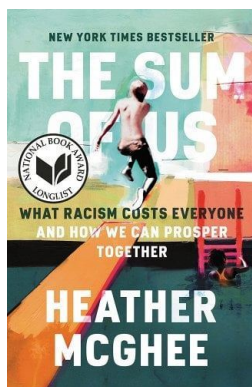

Hi Friend! Change is an ever-present force and we're leaning into it with a transformative union! Black Women of the Chalice will now be in collaboration with The UU Women's Federation as a step toward expanded horizons, enriched community, and amplified impact.

We are committed to transparent integration, celebrating diversity, and honoring our shared values while creating a brighter future. With this united purpose and teamwork, this merger holds the promise of innovation and shared success. Please anticipate updates as we embark on this remarkable journey ahead.

Black women of the Chalice is a group for Black women who are Unitarian Universalists and in seminary; present to support and uplift each other on this journey; and centering on Black womanhood and Black joy and excellence.

*Black: a person of the African diaspora experience
Women: self-identified women; queer and trans-inclusive
Unitarian Universalist: a core or primary faith path
Seminary: academic + internal spiritual development*

Marjorie Bowens-Wheatley Scholarship Deadline November 1st

"Ministry is what we do together – clergy and the laity. It flows from a religious conviction that invites people to become more of themselves, more whole, as we give witness to a vision of a world transformed by our care." –
Marjorie Bowens-Wheatley, January 2005

The Marjorie Bowens-Wheatley Scholarship provides direct financial support to aspirants or candidates to the Unitarian Universalist ministry, or candidates in the UUA's religious education or music leadership programs, who identify as women of color, Latina, or Hispanic.

To apply, or for more information, visit our website. Application deadline is November 1st.

MONTHLY COMMUNITY GATHERING

YOU'RE INVITED!

Every month we invite our community to come together to connect, share wisdom, and explore a topic. Last month our topic was centered around Immigration, Labor Rights, and Violence Against Women Act with guest Katia Hanson of UURISE. The resources that are shared during the gathering are posted onto MightyNetworks.

This month our topic will be focused on Indigenous Unlearning Sessions with guest speaker Kia Bordner, as an ongoing conversation on our

JOYS AND SORROWS

We strongly believe that, when a sorrow is shared, it is lessened and when a joy is shared it is multiplied!

Joys and Sorrows is a community space where we welcome anyone reading this to share their good news, big current priority issue: Protecting Women. Don't miss this opportunity to engage with thought-provoking ideas and network with fellow attendees!
