UU WOMEN'S FEDERATION
MONTHLY READS
BOOK CLUB

The UU Women's Monthly Read Book Club allows entry into our priority issues and supports individuals looking to build on being better allies and co-conspirators. We're reading some of the latest award winning books as we interpret how they can be tools for social justice.

January monthly reads will be paused due to holiday season. We resume in February reading:

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Introducing our Circles of Solidarity Campaign

UUWF is constantly working towards collective liberation, and this year, we're growing our solidarity network! This means meeting people where they are, as well as helping everyone along the continuum of showing up for others. With new panels, workshops, gatherings, and more, our work in 2024 will educate, activate, and inspire this community to action. We will continue to hold inclusive spaces for growth and allow opportunities for engaging in tough conversations with the public. Join us as we train new leaders in our movement for justice and give more women the opportunity to have a seat at the table. Our

NEW ONLINE WORKSHOP SERIES!

PROTECTING WOMEN FROM FAKE ABORTION CLINICS

UUWF national organizer Candace Hasan invites us to learn more about the hundreds of fake women's health centers across the U.S. and how to expose the dangerous lies of anti-abortion counseling.

Fake women's health centers—AKA fake abortion clinics, AKA crisis pregnancy centers—are anti-abortion counseling centers with an agenda. Their goal is to deceive and pressure people to carry a pregnancy to term. Some have some kind of medical license, but the vast majority do not—even if they might appear to from the outside.

During this training, we will take time to discuss the deceptive practices of fake abortion clinics and practice strategies to protect people from misinformation. This workshop is a part of our ongoing priority issue: Protecting Women, which centers on championing bodily autonomy in reproductive health and on reducing harm. These online classes are a monthly training series to help build organizing capacity across our congregations and communities. We are grounded in our UU calling to be lifelong learners and our organizing traditions' call to share what we know for our movements to grow.

Tuesday, January 23, 2024 7:30-8:30pm ET / 6:30 CT / 4:30 PT, followed by an open conversation from 8:15-8:30 ET

YOU'RE INVITED!

Join us for our monthly community gathering every 3rd Thursday of the month where we invite you to connect, share wisdom, and explore topics. This month, we're honored to host Rachel Myslivy (she/they), a climate justice organizer for the UUA's Side With Love Organizing Strategy Team, where she organizes UUs to realize a world with no fossil fuels, where clean energy is a human right, and all communities thrive. Rachel has engaged in climate, energy, environment, agriculture, health equity, leadership, and faith-based organizing spaces for twenty years.

In addition to her presence, Rachel extends a special invitation to the final webinar in Side With Love's Clean Energy as a Human Right Webinar Series, Reimagining with Energy Democracy, taking place on January 25th at 4PT-5MT-6CT-7ET. It's a great opportunity to delve deeper into the vital work of climate justice advocacy. We believe in the power of our community coming together, supporting one another, and engaging in meaningful transformative conversations.

Can't wait to see you for an evening of enlightenment, friendship, and a shared commitment to making a positive impact in our world!
